

South Carolina Climate Change Dialogue

A Strategy Session on Energy Production, Reducing Emissions & Protecting South Carolina's Economy

Thursday, May 14th
Doubletree Downtown
Charleston, South Carolina

- | | |
|--------------------------|--|
| 7:30-8 am | Registration and Breakfast |
| 8- 8:05 am | Welcome Remarks
Ben Hagood, Environmental Committee Chairman,
Charleston Metro Chamber of Commerce |
| 8:05- 8 :30 am | National Policy Perspective
Ross Eisenberg, Counsel and Committee Executive,
Environment & Energy, U.S. Chamber of Commerce |
| 8:30 – 9:15 am | The Economic Implications of Climate Change Policy
Bryan Buckley, Sergei Mityakov, Ph.D. Clemson University |
| 9:15– 10:00 am | Rising to the Challenge & Reducing Our Emissions
George Baldwin, Managing Director,
Legislative & Comm. Affairs, Piedmont Natural Gas
Laura Varn, Vice President, Corporate Communications,
Santee Cooper
Phil Conner, Shareholder, McNair Law Firm |
| 10:00 – 10:35 am | Our Energy Future: The Role of Nuclear in South Carolina and Beyond
Steve Byrne, Senior Vice President, SCANA
*Areva (Nuclear company) – need speaker name |
| 10:35 – 10:345 am | Break |
| 10:45 – 11:30 am | Problem Solving through Innovation, New Technologies to Fuel South Carolina's Economy
Gerald Hill, Ph.D. Technical Coordinator, Southeast Regional
Carbon Sequestration Partnership (SECARB)
John Clark, SC Energy Office |
| 11:30 – 12:10 pm | Where Do We Go From Here? Future Regulatory Action
Ross Eisenberg, Counsel and Committee Executive,
Environment & Energy, U.S. Chamber of Commerce
C. Max Zygmunt, Associate, Alston & Bird
Ben Hagood, Environmental Committee Chairman,
Charleston Metro Chamber of Commerce |