

Don't forget! We are quickly approaching the

VIRGINIA CLIMATE CHANGE & ENERGY BUSINESS SUMMIT

11.03.08

8:30 AM - 4:30 PM

The Jepson Center, University of Richmond

We are excited to confirm that James A. Hixon will be our keynote speaker at the summit. Mr. Hixon is the Executive Vice President of Law and Corporate Relations & the Chief Legal Officer at Norfolk Southern Corporation. He also serves on the boards of the US Chamber of Commerce, The Foundation for Virginia, the American Red Cross of Southeastern Virginia, and Old Dominion University. His speech is an exciting addition to the agenda!

RSVP Now!

The Virginia Chamber of Commerce and the US Chamber of Commerce consider the impacts of climate change to be so great to our economy and environment that we are hosting, at no cost, a day for dialogue and discussion between our communities' business leaders and national environmental and energy experts. On the agenda are panel discussions that will involve notable policy analysts, academic experts, regulatory administrators, and other reputable experts in contributing sectors. Please join us for this important discussion on producing energy, reducing emissions, and protecting the economy. Refreshments and lunch will be provided.

Seating is limited and by invitation only, so please RSVP using the link above by October 27th.
